DUTIES:

Field Supervisor:

The Field Supervisor (FS) serves as the first level supervisor for a group of approximately 6 to 15 Field Representatives, and is responsible for data collection in a geography that may include some hard to count areas. The FS is responsible for ensuring the group's performance meets the standards and expectations set forth by the bureau and survey sponsors. The FS has knowledge of surveys conducted in the area of supervision. The FS understands parameters, procedures, question order and meaning, and typical response patterns of the surveys. Survey knowledge allows the FS to explain the reasons for differences in survey procedures and how those differences affect the interviewing experience. The FS is familiar with most problems encountered by subordinates while interviewing and is able to provide detailed guidance to subordinates on how to resolve issues. When problems occur, the FS applies general guidance, previous training, past experiences, or utilizes survey resource materials to derive appropriate solution. The FS seeks guidance from the supervisor on complex or unusual problems.

As a first level supervisor, the FS is responsible for evaluating and reviewing assignments of subordinates. The FS monitors staff performance that includes on the job observations, monitoring of various performance metrics. The FS may assist with training of employees. The FS reviews and approves payroll and leave submissions for their staff. The FS may assist with the recruiting of Field Representatives.

This is a time-limited position with a NTE date.

Census Jobs!

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ● Economics and Statistics Administration ● U.S. CENSUS BUREAU

The Census Bureau is an Equal Opportunity Employer A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY: EARN MONEY WHILE YOU SERVE YOUR COMMUNITY

The U.S. Census Bureau offers employment opportunities for a variety of positions and durations to support the collection of data for the federal government. These positions may work varied schedules depending on assignments and job requirements. While working, you will serve your country and make a difference in your community.

Program	Description	Types of Work	Duration of Work
Decennial Census	The Census Bureau conducts a count of the entire population every 10 years, in years ending in "0." Throughout the decade, tests are also conducted in various locations in preparation for the Decennial Census. Large recruitment efforts begin one or two years prior to the population count. Decennial positions tend to pay more than other Census positions, but are short-term in nature. Positions most often last several weeks.	The Decennial Census program offers the following types of work: Data Collection Outreach Office	The Decennial Census program offers the following duration of work: Short-term
Current Survey	The Census Bureau conducts surveys almost every day of the year. Because of this, recruiting and hiring for these positions is ongoing, and many employees have worked for the Census Bureau for over 10 years. Current Survey positions vary in length but could extend several weeks, months, or years, depending on the survey work available. Applicants who are selected for Current Survey positions will be notified of the duration of the work assignment during the interview.	The Current Survey program offers the following types of work: Data Collection Office	The Current Survey program offers the following duration of work: Long-term
Special Census	Beginning approximately two years after Decennial Census operations (i.e., in 2022 after the 2020 Census is conducted), the Census Bureau may conduct Special Censuses in certain towns and cities that contract with the Census Bureau to update their population count.	The Special Census program offers the following types of work: Data Collection Office	The Special Census program offers the following duration of work: Short-term

TYPES OF WORK

Data Collection: The majority of available positions at the Census Bureau involve data collection. Data collection involves working from home and interacting with the public. These jobs could involve the following tasks: knocking on doors to collect personal information and verifying household address listings. These jobs almost certainly require you to work nights, weekends, and whenever respondents are available. Limited data collection supervisory positions are also available for the Decennial Census and Special Census programs.

Outreach: These positions are only available for the Decennial Census program. These positions involve outreach to Census partners and potential applicants for Census jobs. Outreach work is conducted outside an office environment.

Office: For applicants who live close to one of the limited number of Census Bureau offices, there are a few office positions available. Office duties include a variety of clerical support tasks such as file maintenance, data entry, answering/making phone calls, word processing, shipping and receiving, processing payroll and personnel actions, and other administrative operations. Limited office supervisory positions are also available for the Decennial Census and Special Census programs.

CONFIDENTIALITY REQUIREMENT

If you are hired, the information you collect from the public will be confidential and must NOT be disclosed to anyone who has not been sworn in to protect Census Bureau information.

DURATION OF WORK

Short-term: Most positions are short-term and generally last several weeks.

Long-term: There are a limited number of long-term positions. Long-term positions vary in length, but could extend several weeks, months, or years, depending on the survey work available. Applicants who are selected for long-term positions will be notified of the duration during the interview.

TRAINING

If selected, you may be asked to attend a paid training session. You may be asked to travel for training and will be reimbursed. Certain positions may require you to complete automated self-studies online and/or classroom training that may require travel to another city on government per diem for several days, including overnight travel. Other positions may require on-the-job training, as well as refresher training sessions periodically.

ΡΔΥ

Social Security deductions will be taken from your earnings. Federal, state, and local income taxes, where applicable, also will be deducted. You will be reimbursed for authorized out of pocket expenses, telephone, and other travel costs, such as parking fees, bus fares, etc., while on official business travel. If hired, you will receive specific information about pay from a Census representative.

Am I eligible for Census work?

- 1. You must be a United States citizen.
- 2. You must be 18 years old or older.
- 3. You must have a valid Social Security Number.
- 4. You must have a valid e-mail address. Any questions or issues with your application will be communicated via this email or by text message if provided. All job interviews and job offers will be conducted via the phone numbers you have provided.
- 5. You must answer assessment questions. For some positions, the assessment questions may be available in Spanish; however, an English Proficiency Test may also be required.
- Male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must be registered with the Selective Service System.
- 7. You must pass a Census Bureau performed criminal background check and review of criminal records (including fingerprinting) as part of the hiring process.
- 8. You may not engage in any partisan political activity while on duty.
- 9. Your current employment (including law and regulatory enforcement jobs) will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis for compatibility with Census Bureau employment.
- 10. Since not all people will be home during the day, you must be available to work days, evenings, and/or weekends. Visits will usually be no later than 9:00 p.m.You generally will have flexibility to choose which hours to work during these productive time periods.

21. Some Census Bureau jobs require employees to conduct the Census interview by reading and recording responses to questions in a language other than English. The employee must be able to convince individuals who speak no English to respond to the interview by explaining the purpose and importance of the census. Employees will receive Census job-related training, but not language training. Are you fluent in any language where you can hold a conversation, read and record responses, and respond to questions in that language? If so, indicate the language(s) below and mark (X) to all that apply.
