

Motion to Commit With Instructions

Mr. Manchin moves to commit the bill H.R. 1 to the Committee on Finance with instructions to report the same back to the Senate in 3 days, not counting any day on which the Senate is not in session, with changes that—

- 1           (1) are within the jurisdiction of such com-
2           mittee;
- 3           (2) make the reductions to individual tax rates
4           for middle class and working people permanent;
- 5           (3) would maintain at existing levels—
  - 6                   (A) the medical expense deduction;
  - 7                   (B) the student loan interest deduction;
  - 8                   (C) retirement savings incentives;
  - 9                   (D) homeownership incentives; and
  - 10                  (E) the historic tax credit;
- 11          (4) provide small businesses with permanent 12          maximum tax relief; and
- 13          (5) fully offset the changes described in para-
14          graphs (2) through (4) by setting the corporate tax
15          rate at 25 percent.
